RELEASED IN FULL

TELCON

Tom Pappas (Athens)

Sec. Kissinger

August 27, 1974

11:25 a.m.

K: Hello. How are you?

P: Fine sir. How are you?

K: O.K.

P: Sorry to bother you but I would like very very much to come to the States this week and to have the opportunity to see you just for a few minutes. I think it is very important. I am seeing Averoff tonight and tomorrow Karamanlis and I would appreciate to see you on Thursday or Friday.

K: I am leaving town on Friday.

P: Can I come Thursday, Mr. Secretary?

K: Would you call Mr. Eagleburger Thursday morning.

P: I shall come to the States and I will call him Thursday morning.

K: I will see you Thursday or Friday morning.

P: What is the number?

K: 632-0968 or the White House.

P: I know that number --456-1414.

What is the name?

K: Eagleburger.

P: Thank you very very much.

K: I will try my best to see you Friday, if I cannot see you Thursday.

P: I will be there.
